What is ECCOPS 'EDUCATION for COMPETENT CITIZENSHIP to PARTICIPATION and SUSTAINABILITY'

On 30 September 2023 will end ECCOPS -Education for Citizenship Competence to Participation and Sustainability-, Erasmus plus project coordinated by UCIIM (Italy), in collaboration with the University of La Laguna (Spain) and the Scholastic Inspectorate of Buzau (Romania). It aims to develop high quality educational strategies for Civic and Citizenship Education (CCE), underlying the European dimension and caring for inclusion, participation by the students and sustainable development, The results are a Toolkit and a set of Competence Cards for the pupils, the Working Guidelines and the Matrix of Competences for the teachers. The cross-national partnership favoured quality work and intercultural understanding.

What has been done?

On 21 September 2023 the second multiplier event took place in Spain for the dissemination of the results of the project. The event has been held at Centro de Formación del Profesorado de la Laguna (CFP La Laguna).

In addition to the Spanish team, secondary education teachers participated in the event and presented examples of good practices of participation and sustainable development.

On 8 and 26 September 2023 the third meeting with all the partner of the Project took place. The Final Meeting was devoted to the reported about events and materials (Toolkit, Competence Cards, webinar, pilot course for students, etc.)

On 27 September 2023, the final ECCOPS multiplier event took place in Italy, for the public dissemination of the results of the project. The final project materials (Toolkit, Competence Cards for students, Competence Matrix for teachers) have been presented at the final ECCOPS Conference and are the result of the revision work carried out by the three partners based on the recommendations and suggestions made by the teachers who tested them.

Furthermore, on 10 October 2023 the Italian team will present the project during the Erasmus Days initiatives of the Europe Direct in Trento. A course for teachers will use the ECCOPS results in the school year 2023-2024.

On 26 October 2023 the Spanish team will participate in the V Congreso Iberoamericano de Orientación of the Asociación Iberoamericana de Orientación Educativa y laboral (AldOEL), and on 29 and 30 November 2023 in the V Congreso Mundial con Infancia y Adolescencia presenting the paper "Proyecto ECCOPS: una propuesta de integración curricular para trabajar los objetivos de desarrollo sostenible en la etapa de secundaria".
